

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and extent.- (1) This Act may be called THE HINDU MARRIAGE ACT, 1955.

(2) It extends<sup>1</sup> to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir, and applies also to Hindus domiciled in the territories to which this Act extends, who are outside the said territories.

2. Application of Act.- (1) This Act applies-

(a) to any person who is a Hindu by religion in any of its forms or developments, including a Virashaiva, a Lingayat or a follower of the Brahmo, Prarthana or Arya Samaj ;

(b) to any person who is a Buddhist, Jaina or Sikh by religion ; and

(c) to any other person domiciled in the territories to which this Act extends who is not a Muslim, Christian, Parsi or Jew by religion, unless it is proved that any such person would not have been governed by the Hindu Law or by any custom or usage as part of that law in respect of any of the matters dealt with herein if this Act had not been passed.

Explanation.- The Following persons are Hindus, Buddhists, Jainas or Sikhs by religion, as the case may be :-

(a) any child, legitimate or illegitimate, both of whose parents are Hindus, Buddhists, Jainas or Sikhs by religion ;

(b) any child, legitimate or illegitimate, one of whose parents is a Hindu, Buddhist, Jaina or Sikh by religion and who is brought up as a member of the tribe, community, group of family to which such parent belongs or belonged ; and

(c) any person who is a convert or re-convert to the Hindu, Buddhist, Jaina or Sikh religion.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), nothing contained in the Act shall apply to the members of any Scheduled Tribes within the meaning of clause (25) of article 366 of the Constitution unless the Central Government , by notification in the Official Gazette, otherwise directs.

(3) The expression "Hindu" in any portion of this Act shall be construed as if it included a person who, though not a Hindu by religion, is, nevertheless, a person to whom this Act applies by virtue of the provisions contained in this section.

1. The Act has been extended to the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regn.6 of 1963 (w.e.f.1-7-1965); Pondicherry by Regn.7 of 1963 (w.e.f. 1-10-1963); Sikkim by Not. No. S.O.311(E) ,dated 28-4-1989 (w.e.f.1-5-1989).

3. Definitions.- in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) the expression “custom” and “usage” signify any rule which, having been continuously and uniformly observed for a long time, has obtained the force of law among Hindu on any local area, tribe, community, group or family ;

Provided that the rule is certain and not unreasonable or opposed to public; and provided further that in the case of a rule applicable only to a family it has not been discontinued by the family.

(b) “district Court” means, in any area for which there is a city civil Court, that Court, and in any other area the principal civil Court of original jurisdiction, and includes any other civil Court which may be specified by the State Government , by notification in the Official Gazette, as having jurisdiction in respect of the matters dealt with in this Act ;

(c) “ full blood” and “half blood” - two persons are said to be related to each other by full blood when they are descended from a common ancestor by the same wife and by half blood when they are descended from a common ancestor but by different wives ;

(d) “uterine blood” - two persons are said to be related to each other by uterine blood when they are descended from a common ancestress but by different husbands ;

Explanation.- In clause (c) and (d),, “ancestor” includes the father and “ancestress” the mother;

(e) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act ;

(f) (i) “sapinda relationship” with reference to any person extends as far as the third generation (inclusive) in the line of ascent through the mother, and fifth (inclusive) in the line of ascent through the father, the line being traced upwards in each case from the person concerned, who is to be counted as the first generation ;

(ii) two persons are said to be “sapindas” of each other if one is a lineal ascendant of the other within the limits of sapinda relationship, or if they have a common lineal ascendant who is within the limits of sapinda relationship with reference to each of them ;

(g) “degrees of prohibited relationship”- two persons are said to be within the “degrees of prohibited relationship” -

(i) if one is a lineal ascendant of the other ; or

(ii) if one was the wife or husband of a lineal ascendant or descendant of the other ; or

(iii) if one was the wife of the brother or of the father`s or mother`s brother or of the grandfather`s or grandmother`s brother of the other ; or

(iv) if the two are brother and sister, uncle and niece, aunt and nephew, or children of brother and sister or of two brothers or of two sisters ;

Explanation.- For the purposes of clauses (f) and (g), relationship includes-

(i) relationship by half or uterine blood as well as by full blood ;

(ii) illegitimate blood relationship as well as legitimate ;

(iii) relationship by adoption as well as by blood ;

and all terms of relationship in those clauses shall be construed accordingly .

4. Overriding effect of Act.- Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act.-

(a) any text, rule or interpretation of Hindu Law or any custom or usage as part of that law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall cease to have effect with respect to any matter for which provisions is made in this Act ;

(b) any other law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall cease to have effect into far as it is inconsistent with any of the provisions contained in this Act.

CHAPTER II

HINDU MARRIAGES

5. Conditions for a Hindu marriage.- A marriage may be solemnized between any two Hindus, if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely :-

(i) neither party has a spouse living at the time of the marriage ;

(a) is incapable of giving a valid consent to it in consequence of unsoundness of mind ; or

(b) though capable of giving a valid consent, has been suffering from mental disorder of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfit for marriage and the procreation of children ; or

(c) has been subject to recurrent attacks of insanity <sup>2</sup>[***] ;]

(iii) the bridegroom has completed the age of <sup>4</sup>[twenty-one year] and the bride, the age of <sup>3</sup>[eighteen years] at the time of the marriage;

(iv) the parties are not within the degrees of prohibited relationship, unless the custom or usage governing each of them permits of a marriage between the two ;

(v) the parties are not sapindas of each other, unless the custom or usage governing each of them permits of a marriage between the two ;

6. Guardianship in marriage.- (Omitted by the Amendment Act 2 of 1978, S.6 and Sch. (w.e.f.1-10-1978).]

7. Cermonies for a Hindu marriage.- (1) A Hindu marriage may be solemnized in accordance with the customary rites and ceremonies of either party thereto.

Where such rites and ceremonies include the Saptapadi (that is, the taking of seven steps by the bridegroom and the bride jointly before the scared fire), the marriage becomes complete and binding when the seventh step is taken.

Section 7-A

Sate Amendments-[Pondicherry].- In its application to the Union Territory of Pondicherry, after S.7. insert the following section, namely.-

---

1. Cl.(ii) substituted by Acts 68 of 1976, S.2(w.e.f.25-5-1976)

2. The words "or epilepsy" omitted by Act 39 of 1999, S.2.

3. Substituted for "eighteen years " and "fifteen years" respectively, by Act 2 of 1978, S.6.and Sch.(w.e.f.1-10-1978)

4.Cl.(vi) omitted, ibid (w.e.f.1-10-1978).

“7-A. Special provision regarding suyamariythai and seerthiruththa marriages.- (1) This section shall apply to any marriage between any two Hindus, whether called suyamariythai marriage or seerthiruththa marriage or by any other name, solemnised in the presence of relatives, friends or other persons-

(a) by each party to the marriage declaring in any language (which is understood by the parties and by at least two persons in whose presence the marriage is solemnised), that each takes the other to be his wife or, as the case may be, her husband ; or

(b) by each party to the marriage garlanding the other or putting a ring upon any finger of the other ; or

(c) by the tying of the thali.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 7, but subject to the other provisions of this Act, all marriages to which the section applies solemnised after the commencement of the Hindu Marriage (Pondicherry Amendment) Act, 1971, shall be good and valid in law.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 7 or in any text, rule or interpretation of Hindu Law or any custom or usage as part of that law in force immediately before the commencement of Hindu Marriage (Pondicherry Amendment) Act, 1971, or in any other law in force immediately before such commencement or in any judgment, decree or order of any Court, but subject to sub-section (3), all marriages to which this section applied solemnised at any time before such commencement shall be deemed to have been, with effect on and from the date of the solemnisation of each such marriage respectively, good and valid in law.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to -

(a) render valid any marriage referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2), if before the commencement of the Hindu Marriage (Pondicherry Amendment) Act, 1971,-

(i) such marriage has been dissolved under any custom or law; or

(ii) the woman who was a party to such marriage has, whether during or after the life of the other party thereto, lawfully married another; or

(b) render invalid a marriage between any two Hindus solemnised at any time before such commencement, if such marriage was valid at that time; or

(c) render valid a marriage between any two Hindus solemnised at any time before such commencement, if such marriage was invalid at that time on any ground other than that it was not solemnised in accordance with the customary rites and ceremonies of either party thereto;

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any person liable to any punishment whatsoever by reason of anything done or omitted to be done by him before such commencement.

(4) Any child of the parties to a marriage referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2) born of such marriage shall be deemed to be their legitimate child :

Provided that in case falling under sub-clause(i) or sub-clause(ii) of clause (a) of sub-section (#), such child was begotten before the date of the dissolution of the marriage or, as the case may be, before the date of the second of the marriage referred to in the said sub-clause(ii)”- Pondicherry ACT 14 of 1971, S.2 (w.e.f.9.7.1971)

8. Registration of Hindu marriages.- (1) For the purpose of facilitating the proof of Hindu marriages, the State Government may make rules<sup>1</sup> providing that the parties to any such marriage may have the particulars relating to their marriage entered in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in a Hindu Marriage Register kept for the purpose.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the State Government may, if it is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, provide that the entering of the particulars referred to in sub-section (1) shall be compulsory in the State or in any part thereof, whether in all cases or in such cases as may be specified, and where any such direction has been issued, any person contravening any rule made in this behalf shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid before the State Legislature, as soon as may be, after they are made.

(4) The Hindu Marriage Registrar shall at all reasonable times be open for inspection, and shall be admissible as evidence of the statements therein contained and certified extracts therefrom shall, on application, be given by the Registrar on payment to him of the prescribed fee.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the validity of any Hindu marriage shall in way be affected by the omission to make the entry.

CHAPTER III

RESTITUTION OF CONJUGAL RIGHTS AND JUDICIAL SEPARATION

9. Restitution of conjugal rights.-<sup>2</sup>[*] When either the husband or the wife has, without reasonable excuse, withdrawn from the society of the other, the aggrieved party may apply by petition to the district Court, for restitution of conjugal rights and the Court, on being satisfied of the truth of the statements made in such petition and that there is no legal ground why the application should not be granted, may decree restitution of conjugal rights accordingly.

<sup>3</sup>[ Explanation.- Where a question arises whether there has been reasonable excuse for withdrawal from the society, the burden of providing reasonable excuse shall be on the person who has withdrawn from the society.]

1. See. the Hindu Marriage (Mysore) Rules, 1966, the Hindu Marriage Registration (Tamil Nadu) Rules, 1967 ; the Madhya Pradesh Hindu Marriage (Registration) Rules, 1956; the Pondicherry Hindu Marriage (Registration) Rules, 1969 and the Hindu Marriage Registration (Sikkam) Rules, 1991.

2. The brackets and figures“(1)” omitted by Act 68 of 1976, S.3(w.e.f.27-5-1976)

3. Added, ibid (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

4. Sub-S,(2) omitted, ibid (w.e.f.27-05-1976)

10. Judicial separation.- <sup>1</sup>[(1) Either party to a marriage, whether solemnized before or after the commencement of this Act, may present a petition praying for a decree for judicial separation on any of the grounds specified in sub-section (1) of section 13, and in the case of a wife also on any of the grounds specified in sub-section (2) thereof, as grounds on which a petition for divorce might have been presented.]

(2) Where a decree for judicial separation has been passed, it shall no longer be obligatory for the petitioner to cohabit with the respondent, but the Court may, on the application by petition of either party and on being satisfied of the truth of the statements made in such petition, rescind the decree if it considers it just and reasonable to do so.

CHAPTER IV

NULLITY OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

11. Void marriages.- Any marriage solemnized after the commencement of this Act shall be null and void and may, on a petition presented by either party thereto, <sup>2</sup>[against the other party], be so declared by a decree of nullity if it contravenes any one of the conditions specified in clauses (i),(iv) and (v) of section 5.

1. Substituted for sub-S,(1) by Act 68 of 1976, S.1976, S.4(w.e.f.27-5-1976)

2. Inserted by Act 68 of 1976, S.5 (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

12. Voidable marriage.- (1) Any marriage solemnized, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be voidable and may be annulled by a decree of nullity on any of the following grounds, namely :-

<sup>1</sup>[ (a) that the marriage has not been consummated owing to the impotence of the respondent ;or

(b) that the marriage is in contravention of the condition specified in clause (ii) of section 5 ;or

(c) that the consent of the petitioner, or where the consent of the guardian in marriage of the petitioner <sup>2</sup>[was required under section 5, as it stood immediately before the commencement of the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act , 1978), the consent of such guardian was obtained by force <sup>3</sup>(or by fraud as to the nature of the ceremony or as to any material fact or circumstance concerning the respondent] ; or

(d) that the respondent was at the time of the marriage pregnant by some person other than the petitioner.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no petition for annulling a marriage-

(a) on the ground specified in clause (c) of sub-section (1), shall be entertained if-

(i) the petition is presented more than one year after the force had ceased to operate or, as the case may be, the fraud had been discovered ; or

(ii) the petitioner has, with his or her full consent, lived with the other party to the marriage as husband or wife after the force had ceased to operate or, as the case may be, the fraud had been discovered;

(b) on the ground specified in clause (d) of sub-section (1), shall be entertained unless the Court is satisfied-

(i) that the petitioner was at the time of the marriage ignorant of the facts alleged;

(ii) that proceedings have been instituted in the case of a marriage solemnized before the commencement of this Act within one year of such commencement and in the case of marriage solemnized after such commencement within one year from the date of the marriage; and

(iii) that marital intercourse with the consent of the petitioner has not taken place since the discovery by the petitioner of the existence of <sup>4</sup>[the said ground].

13. Divorce.- (1) Any marriage solemnized, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, may on a petition presented by either the husband or the wife, be dissolved by a decree of divorce on the ground that the other party-

<sup>5</sup>[(i) has, after the solemnization of the marriage, had voluntary sexual intercourse with any person other than his or her spouse ; or

1. Substituted by S. 6, of Act 68 of 1976, for Cl.(a) (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

2. Substituted for "is required under section 5" by Act 2 of 1978, S.6 and Sch. (w.e.f.1.10.1978)

3. Substituted for "or fraud" by Act 68 of 1976, S.6 (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

4. Substituted for " the grounds fora decree" by Act 68 of 1976, S.6.(w.e.f.27.5.1796)

5. Substituted by S.7, ibid, for Cl.(i) (w.e.f. 27.5.1976)

(i-a) has, after the solemnization of the marriage the petitioner with cruelty ; or

(i-b) has deserted the petitioner of a continuous period of not less than two years immediately preceding the presentation of the petition ; or]

<sup>1</sup>[(iii) has been incurably of unsound mind, or has been suffering continuously or intermittently from mental disorder of such a kind and to such an extent that the petitioner cannot reasonably be expected to live with the respondent.

Explanation.- In this clause,-

(a) the expression “ mental disorder” means mental illness, arrested or incomplete development of mind, psychopathic disorder or any other disorder or any other disorder or disability of mind and includes schizophrenia ; or

(b) the expression “psychopathic disorder” means a persistent disorder or disability of mind ( whether or not including sub-normality of intelligence) which results in abnormally aggressive or seriously irresponsible conduct on the part of the other party, and whether or not it requires or is susceptible to medical treatment; or]

(iv) has <sup>2</sup>[ ***] been suffering from a virulent and incurable form of leprosy ; or

(v) has <sup>3</sup>[***] being suffering from venereal disease in a communicable form ; or

(vi) has renounced the world by entering any religious order ; or

(vii) has not been heard of as being alive for a period of seven years or more by those persons who would naturally have heard of it, had that party been alive <sup>3</sup>[*].

<sup>20</sup>[Explanation,- In this sub-section, the expression “desertion” means the desertion of the petitioner by the other party to the marriage without reasonable cause and without the consent or against the wish of such party, and includes the wilful neglect of the petitioner by the other party to the marriage, and its grammatical variations and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly]

<sup>6</sup>[(1-A) Either party to a marriage, whether solemnized before or after the commencement of this Act, may also present a petition for the dissolution of the marriage by a decree of divorce on the ground-

(i) that there has been no resumption of cohabitation as between the parties to the marriage for a period of <sup>7</sup>[one year] or upwards after the passing of a decree for judicial separation in proceeding to which they were parties ; or

1. Substituted for Cl.(iii) by Act 68 of 1976, S.7 (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

2. The words “for a period of not less than three years immediately preceding the presentation of the petition” omitted, ibid (w.e.f. 27-5-1976).

3. The word “or” omitted by Act 44 of 1964, S.2

4. Inserted by Act 68 of 1976, S.7 (w.e.f.27-5-1976).

5. Cls. (viii) and (ix) omitted by Act 44 of 1964, S.2.

6. Inserted, ibid.

7. Substituted for “two years” by Act 68 of 1976, S.7 (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

(ii) that there has been no restitution of conjugal rights as between the parties to the marriage for a period of <sup>1</sup>[ one year] or upwards after the passing of a decree for restitution of conjugal rights in a proceeding to which they were parties].

(2) A wife may also present a petition for the dissolution of her marriage by a decree of divorce on the ground,-

(i) in the case of any marriage solemnized before the commencement of this Act, that the husband had married again before such commencement or that any other wife of the husband married before such commencement was alive at the time of the solemnization of the marriage of the petitioner :

(ii) that the husband has, since the solemnization of the marriage, been guilty of rape, sodomy or <sup>2</sup>[ bestiality; or]

<sup>3</sup>[ (iii) that in a suit under section 18 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956, or in a proceeding under section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (or under the corresponding section 488 of the Code of Criminal procedure, 1898), a decree or order, as the case may be, has been passed against the husband awarding maintenance to the wife notwithstanding that she was living apart and that since the passing of such decree or order, cohabitation between the parties has not been resumed for one year or upwards; or

(iv) that her marriage (whether consummated or not) was solemnized before she attained the age of fifteen years and she has repudiated the marriage after attaining that age but before attaining the age of eighteen years.

Explanation.- This clause applies whether the marriage was solemnized before or after the commencement of the Marriage Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976].

<sup>4</sup>[13-A. Alternate relief in divorce proceedings.- In any proceeding under this Act, on a petition for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce, except in so far as the petition is founded on the grounds mentioned in clauses(ii), (vi) and (vii) of sub-section (1) of Section 13, the court may, if it considers it just so to do having regard to the circumstances of the case, pass instead a decree for judicial separation.

<sup>4</sup>[13-B.Divorce by mutual consent - (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act a petition for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce may be presented to the district Court by both the parties to a marriage together, whether such marriage was solemnized before or after the commencement of the Marriage Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976, on the ground that they have been living separately for a period of one year or more, that they have not been able to live together and that they have mutually agreed that the marriage should be dissolved.

(2) On the motion of both the parties made not earlier than six months after the date of the presentation of the petition referred to in sub-section (1) and not later than eighteen months after the said date, if the petitions is not withdrawn in the meantime, the Court shall, on being satisfied, after hearing the parties and after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, that a marriage has been solemnized and that the averments in the petition are true, pass a decree of divorce declaring the marriage to be dissolved with effect from the date of the decree.]

1. Substituted for "two years" by Act 68 of 1976 (w.e.f.27-5-1976).

2. Substituted, idid, for "bestiality" (w.e.f.27.5.1976)

3. Inserted,ibid (w.e.f. 27-5-1976)

4. Inserted by Act 68 of 1976, S.8(w.e.f.27-5-1976).

14. No petition for divorce to be presented within one year of marriage.- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, it shall not be competent for any Court to entertain any petition for dissolution of a marriage by a decree of divorce, <sup>1</sup>[ unless at the date of the presentation of the petition one year has elapsed] since the date of the marriage;

Provided that the Court may, upon application made to it in accordance with such rules as may be made by the High Court in that behalf, allow a petition to presented <sup>2</sup>[ before one year has elapsed] since the date of the marriage on the ground that the case is one of exceptional hardship to the petitioner or of exceptional depravity on the part of the respondent, but, if it appears to the Court at the hearing of the petition that the petitioner obtained leave to present the petition by any misrepresentation or concealment of the nature of the case, the Court may, if it pronounces a decree, do so subject to the condition that the decree shall not have effect until after the <sup>3</sup>[expiration of the said one year] from the date of the marriage or may dismiss the petition without prejudice to any petition which may be brought after the [expiration of the said one year] upon the same or substantially the same facts as those alleged in support of the petition so dismissed.

(2) In disposing of any application under this section for leave to present a petition for divorce before the <sup>5</sup>[ expiration of one year] from the date of the marriage, the Court shall have regard to the interests of any children of the marriage and to the question whether there is a reasonable probability of a reconciliation between the parties before the expiration of the <sup>6</sup>[ said one year].

15. Divorced persons when may marry again.- When a marriage has been dissolved by a decree of divorce and either there is no right of appeal against the decree or, if there is such a right of appeal, the time for appealing has expired without an appeal having been presented or an appeal has been presented but has been dismissed, it shall be lawful for either party to the marriage to marry again

<sup>8</sup>[16. Legitimacy of children of void and voidable marriage.- (1) Notwithstanding that a marriage is null and void under section 11, any child of such marriage who would have been legitimate if the marriage had been valid, shall be legitimate, whether such child is born before or after the commencement of the Marriage Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976, and whether or not a decree of nullity is granted in respect of that marriage under this Act and whether or not the marriage is held to be void otherwise than on a petition under this Act.

(2) Where a decree of nullity is granted in respect of a voidable marriage under section 12, any child begotten or conceived before the decree is made, who would have been the legitimate child of the parties to the marriage if at the date of the decree it had been dissolved instead of being annulled, shall be deemed to their legitimate child notwithstanding the decree of nullity.

(3) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be construed as conferring upon any child of a marriage which is null and void or which is annulled by a decree of nullity under section 12, any rights in or to the property of any, person, other than the parents, in any case here, but for the passing of this Act, such child would have been incapable of possessing or acquiring any such rights by reason of his not being the legitimate child of the parents]

1. Substituted for "unless at the date of the presentation of the petition three years have elapsed" by Act 68 of 1976, S.9 (w.e.f.27-5-1976).

2. Substituted , ibid, for "before three years have elapsed" (w.e.f. 27-5-1976).

3. Substituted, ibid, for "expiry of three years "(w.e.f 27-5-1976)

4. Substituted, ibid, for "expiration of the said three years" (w.e.f.27-5-1976).

5. Substituted, ibid, for "expiration of three years" (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

6. Substituted, ibid, for "said three years" (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

7. Proviso omitted by Act 68 of 1976, S.10(w.e.f 27-5-1976)

8. Substituted by S.11, ibid (w.e.f. 27-5-1976)

17. Punishment of bigamy.- Any marriage between two Hindu solemnized after the commencement of this Act is void if at the date of such marriage either party had a husband or wife living ; and the provisions of section 494 and 495 of the Indian Penal Code shall apply accordingly.

18. Punishment for contravention of certain other conditions for a Hindu marriage.- Every person who procures a marriage of himself or herself to be solemnized under this Act in contravention of the conditions specified in clauses(iii), (iv), <sup>1</sup>[ and (v)] of section 5 shall be punishable-

(a) in the case of a contravention of the condition specified in clause (iii) of section 5, with simple imprisonment which may extend to fifteen days, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both ;

(b) in the case of contravention of the condition specified in clause (iv) or clause (v) of section 5, with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both ;

CHAPTER V

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE

<sup>4</sup>[19. Court to which petition shall be presented.- Every petition under this Act shall be presented to the district Court within the local limits of whose ordinary original civil jurisdiction-

(i) the marriage was solemnized, or

(ii) the respondent, at the time of the presentation of the petition, resides, or

(iii) the parties to the marriage last resided together, or

(iv) the petitioner is residing at the time of the presentation of the petition, in a case where the respondent is, at that time, residing outside the territories to which this Act extends, or has not been heard of as being alive for a period of seven years or more by those persons who would naturally have heard of him if he were alive]

20. Contents and verification of petition.- (1) Every petition presented under this Act shall state as distinctly as the nature of the case permits the facts on which the claim to relief is founded <sup>40</sup>[and, except in a petition under section 11, shall also state] that there is no collusion between the petitioner and the other party to the marriage.

(2) The statements contained in every petition under this Act shall be verified by the petitioner or some other competent person in the manner required by law for the verification of plaints, and may, at the hearing, be referred to as evidence.

1. Substituted for "(v) and (vi)" by Act 2 of 1978, S.6 and Sch. (w.e.f. 1-10-1978)

2. The word "and" omitted, ibid (w.e.f.1-10-1978)

5. Substituted by S.13, ibid, for " and shall also state" (w.e.f.27-5-1976)

21. Application of Act 5 of 1908.- Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act and to such rules as the High Court may make in this behalf, all proceedings under this act shall be regulated, as far as may be, by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

(a) a petition under this Act has been presented to a district Court having jurisdiction by a party to a marriage praying for a decree for judicial separation under section 10 or for a decree of divorce under section 13, and

(b) another petition under this Act has been presented thereafter by the other party to the marriage praying for a decree for judicial separation under section 10 or for a decree of divorce under section 13 on any ground, whether in the same district Court or in a different district Court, in the same State or in a different State, the petitions shall be dealt with as specified in sub-section (2),

(2) In a case where sub-section (1) applied,-

(a) if the petitions are presented to the same district Court, both the petitions shall be tried and heard together by that district Court.

(b) if the petitions are presented to different district Courts, the petition presented later shall be transferred to the district Court in which the earlier petition was presented and both the petitions shall be heard and disposed of together by the district Court in which the earlier petition was presented.

(3) In a case where clause(b) of sub-section (2) applies, the Court or the Government, as the case may be, competent under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to transfer any suit or proceeding from the district Court in which the later petition has been presented to the district Court in which the earlier petition is pending, shall exercise its powers to transfer such later petition as if it had been empowered so to do under the said Code.]

<sup>2</sup>[21-B. Special provision relating to trial and disposal of petitions under the Act.- (1) The trial of a petition under this Act shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interests of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day until its conclusion unless the Court finds the adjournment of the trial beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

(2) Every petition under this Act shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date of service of notice of the petition on the respondent.

(3) Every appeal under this Act shall be heard as expeditiously as possible, and endeavour shall be made to conclude the hearing within three months from the date of service of notice of appeal on the respondent.]

<sup>2</sup>[21-C. Documentary evidence.- Notwithstanding anything in any enactment to the contrary, no document shall be inadmissible in evidence in any proceeding at the trial of a petition under this Act on the ground that it is not duly stamped or registered.]

(2) If any person prints or publishes any matter in contravention of the provisions contained in sub-section (1), he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.]

23. Decree in proceedings.- (1) In any proceeding under this Act, whether defended or not, if the Court is satisfied that-

(a) any of the grounds for granting relief exists and the petitioner <sup>2</sup>[ except in cases where the relief is sought by him on the ground specified in sub-clause(a), sub-clause(b) or sub-clause(c) of clause (ii) of section 5] is not in any way taking advantage of his or her own wrong or disability for the purpose of such relief, and.

(b) where the ground of the petition is the ground specified <sup>3</sup>[***] in clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 13, the petitioner has not in any manner been accessory to or connived at or condoned the act or acts complained of, or where the ground of the petition is cruelty the petitioner has not in any manner condoned the cruelty, and

<sup>4</sup>[ (bb) when a divorce is sought on the ground of mutual consent, such consent has not been obtained by force, fraud or undue influence, and]

(c) <sup>5</sup>[the petition (not being a petition presented under section 11)] is not presented or prosecuted in collusion with the respondent, and

(d) there has not been any unnecessary or improper delay in instituting the proceeding, and

(e) there is no other legal ground why relief should not be granted, then, and in such a case, but not otherwise, the Court shall decree such relief accordingly.

(2) Before proceeding to grant any relief under this Act, it shall be the duty of the Court in the first instance, in every case where it is possible so to do consistently with the nature and circumstances of the case, to make every endeavour to bring about a reconciliation between the parties.

<sup>6</sup>[ Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any proceeding wherein relief is sought on any of the grounds specified in clause (ii), clause (iii), clause(iv), clause(v), clause (vi), clause (vii) of sub-section (1) of section 13.]

<sup>7</sup>[ (3) For the purpose of aiding the Court in bringing about such reconciliation, the Court may, if the parties so desire or if the Court thinks fit just and proper so to do, adjourn the proceedings for a reasonable period not in this behalf or to any person nominated by the Court if the parties fail to name any person, with directions to report to the Court , as to whether reconciliation can be and has been, effected and the Court shall in disposing of the proceeding have due regard to the report.

(4) In every case where a marriage is dissolved by a decree of divorce, the Court passing the decree shall give a copy thereof free of cost to each of the parties.
